THIS WEEK

Football II – High School Style

This week we continue our exploration of the ins and outs of that most American of roughhouse sports-football. Having seen inside the mayhem that generally takes place on Sunday afternoons, we switch to the version of the sport that is played under Friday Night-lights at high schools all over the country (both ends of the football spectrum, as it were). Our speaker is Ryan Maddox who has met with tremendous success as coach of the Monrovia High School Wild Cats. In his two years here the Cats have won the Rio Honda title both years and last year made it to the CIF final. Coach Maddox is very worth hearing from. See you Thursday.

LAST WEEK

BURN AFTER READING

We were honored to host Cal-Nev-Ha District's Division 35 Lt. Governor. TONY MILLER as he made his official visit to our club. While TONY spoke of the Kiwanians all over the world who are doing wondrous works he let it be known that he not only reads these musings, but checks the spelling. We're going to double our editorial staff. TONY is such a good guy that he awarded a snazzy pen to the night shift editor, LES PETERSEN, for misspelling TONY'S NAME

THE DREDED VISITOR SONG

Lt. Gov. TONY was accompanied by an entourage consisting of four fellow Glendora KIWANIANS and Rogers Johaanson guested a couple of his guys and so we trotted the DVS out for their edification.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS:

- Mar 12th Friday. The social being held at the new London Gastro Pub will, hopefully, engender closer ties and more cooperation and coordination with our friendly “R Club” rivals. We need to make a good showing

JIMM HUNT DAY

JJIMM HUNT generously upped his $20 fine to $40 in observance of his wedding anniversary, and had hardly been seated when his name was called as the winner of the 50/50 drawing.
