THIS WEEK

The ANDY B Show

SUPT. LINDA WAGNER, Monrovia's enthusiastic chief school person, will present a program that just might have an educational theme. If we listen quietly perhaps she'll let us have a sneak peek at the new and improved high school before the start of the school year. The tough part will be the "quietly," BILL CALLAGY.

LAST WEEK

TUFF ON DIRT

PRESIDENT RYAN The cousins grim, that is ALFREDO MAJIA and brought us up to date on the real estate market-both residential and commercial. While things are gloomy now, happy days will be here again, to coin phrase.

THE DREDED VISITOR SONG

Two inter-clubs, South Hills and Covina, and BILL CALLAGY'S bodyguard, Kay, were on hand to suffer through a rendition of the DVS that was so fast that my dentures came loose.

WORTH REPEATING -- OFFICERS ELECTED

With their nominations having been whispered for the requisite period of time, it was a unanimous vote to replace the tranquil, urbane administration of RYAN GARCIA in September with the madcap regime of ALFREDO MEJIA (president), JULIE GENTILE (vice president) and DON YOST (whispered, treasurer)

More Stuff You Need to Know...

FIFTY/$50 GONE MISSING

When KAREN STRALEY selfishly has to tend to business and misses a meeting, things quickly fall apart. Hence, no drawing last week.

NEW MEMBER JENNIFER STONE

JENNIFER has the apron and each of us has the obligation to affix our name to it after introducing ourselves to her. This means everybody! Time grows short.

FINES AND WHINES

DON YOST was assessed an Andersen for deigning to have both a birthday and a wedding anniversary in the same month.

Have a wonderful week, and we'll see you Thursday
